The prevalent opinion is that our Master had only three sons; and Ṭayyib–Ṭāhir were the titles of Ābdullāh

Sayyidah Khadījah is the mother of all his ﷺ children, except Sayyidunā Ibrāhīm, whose mother is Sayyidah Māriyah. رضي الله عنهم

إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ ٱللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنكُمُ ٱلرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ ٱلْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا

Children of Sayyidah Ruqayyah: Ābdullāh was the son of Sayyidunā Úthmān.

رضي الله عنهم

Muhsin died in infancy and Ruqayyah before reaching adulthood (both children of Sayyidah Fāṭimah). Ālī (son of Zaynab) died young; Ābdullāh (son of Ruqayyah) also died in infancy. رضي الله عنهم

MUHAMMAD ﷺ

إِنَّ ٱللَّهَ وَمَلَٰٓئِكَتَهُۥ يُصَلُّونَ عَلَى ٱلنَّبِىِّ ۚ يَٰٓأَيُّهَا ٱلَّذِينَ ءَامَنُوا۟ صَلُّوا۟ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلِّمُوا۟ تَسْلِيمًا

On the night of his ﷺ birth, the palace of Chosroes shook until the sound of its tremor was heard [from afar] and fourteen columns of his palace collapsed; the grand fire of the Persians, which had been burning continuously for a thousand years was extinguished, and the water of lake Sawah evaporated.

The Blessed Birth

Muṣṭafā ﷺ was born in Makkah on Monday, the 12th of Rabīʿ al-Awwal in the year of the Attack of the Elephants.

لَقَدْ مَنَّ ٱللَّهُ عَلَى ٱلْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذْ بَعَثَ فِيهِمْ رَسُولًا مِّنْ أَنفُسِهِمْ

حَرِيصٌ عَلَيْكُم بِٱلْمُؤْمِنِينَ رَءُوفٌ رَّحِيمٌ

وَلَوْ أَنَّهُمْ إِذ ظَّلَمُوٓا۟ أَنفُسَهُمْ جَآءُوكَ فَٱسْتَغْفَرُوا۟ ٱللَّهَ وَٱسْتَغْفَرَ لَهُمُ ٱلرَّسُولُ لَوَجَدُوا۟ ٱللَّهَ تَوَّابًا رَّحِيمًا

LOVING RASŪLALLĀH ﷺ AND HIS RIGHT UPON HIS UMMAH

We should love him more than anyone else in this world – far more than our parents, our children and everyone else. One cannot be a complete Muslim until he/she loves RasūlAllāh ﷺ more than everyone else. One should hope for and strive for this love because, on the Day of Judgement, 'a man will be with whom he loves'. Signs of True Love: To follow him faithfully and adopt his sunnah in all aspects of one's life - in speech, actions, dress, habits and manners ﷺ To obey his commands and refrain from what he has prohibited ﷺ To respect him and to mention him with deference ﷺ To display humility due upon a servant, upon hearing his name ﷺ To ask for blessings and peace upon hearing his name ﷺ To love and respect his loved ones: his noble family, descendants, companions and upright scholars of his nation ﷺ To be compassionate with his followers, strive for their betterment and ease their hardship ﷺ To bear enmity with his enemies ﷺ To be adherent to his sharīʿah and to be righteous and pious. To love the Qur'ān by reading and understanding it ﷺ To love the hereafter and be abstemious [zuhd] in this world ﷺ To visit him in Madīnah ﷺ

HIS SUPERIORITY AND EXCLUSIVE ATTRIBUTES : RasūlAllāh ﷺ is the leader of all men and the leige-lord of all Prophets ﷺ He is the most beloved of Allāh in the creation and is the most honourable ﷺ He will be the first to intercede on Judgement Day and whose intercession (shafāāh) will be accepted ﷺ He will be raised to the Station of Praise [al-Maqām al-Maḥmūd] ﷺ He was aided by awe, and the whole earth was made pure for his followers to pray ﷺ His nation [ummah] is the greatest of all nations that have come, because of him ﷺ Allāh ﷻ made him the lawgiver – he can make things obligatory or forbidden and lawful and unlawful ﷺ He was sent as a mercy to the universe ﷺ He was given the keys to all the treasures of the earth ﷺ He was granted the Vision – to see Allāh in a waking state – on the night of Ascension ﷺ He is the owner of Kawthar and Tasnim ﷺ His prophethood is universal; after his coming, anyone who does not believe in him is a kāfir and destined for hell forever ﷺ When Sayyidunā Īysā ﷺ returns he will follow and enforce RasūlAllāh's ﷺ sharīʿah ﷺ وَمَآ أَرْسَلْنَٰكَ إِلَّا كَآفَّةً لِّلنَّاسِ

THE SEAL OF PROPHETHOOD

RasūlAllāh ﷺ is the first prophet to be created and the last to be sent in this world. There will be no other prophet after his coming. This is a fundamental tenet of Islam. Anyone who believes that after RasūlAllāh ﷺ, a prophet has come or can come, is a liar and kafir; RasūlAllāh ﷺ foretold of 30 liars (*dajjāl*s) who would claim to be prophets; and will appear prior to the biggest liar, the one-eyed dajjāl, who will claim to be god.

مَّا كَانَ مُحَمَّدٌ أَبَآ أَحَدٍ مِّن رِّجَالِكُمْ وَلَٰكِن رَّسُولَ ٱللَّهِ وَخَاتَمَ ٱلنَّبِيِّـۧنَ

ḤAJJ: RasūlAllāh ﷺ performed the pilgrimage TWICE prior to its being made obligatory and only ONCE after it became obligatory. This ḥajj was qiran; i.e. úmrah and ḥajj together with the same ihram. He performed the lesser pilgrimage (úmrah) FOUR times; all the four were in Dhu'l Qaādah.

HIS ﷺ PHYSICAL ATTRIBUTES

RasūlAllāh ﷺ was neither very tall (in height), nor was he impishly short; rather, he was of a medium height. His hair was neither very curly, nor very straight; rather, it was wavy. His face was neither plump, nor was it round; rather, it was oval shaped. His complexion was white with a rosy hue. His bright eyes had intensely black pupils and long eyelashes. He was well-built and had broad shoulders. He had sparse body hair; however, he had hair on his chest (and also on his arms and legs). His palms and feet were fleshy and sturdy. When he walked, he lifted his foot firmly and with vigour, as if he were descending on a slope. When turning towards someone, he would turn fully towards them to face them (and not just turn his neck). Between his two shoulders was the Seal of Prophethood; and He is the Seal of all Prophets. He had the most generous heart (in his bosom) and he was the most eloquent and truthful among all men. He was kind, patient, considerate and magnanimous. Whoever saw him suddenly would be awestruck; and those who became familiar and stayed in his company would love him. The person who described him would say: 'I had never seen anyone like him before, or after him'. [Shāmāyil]

His hair would reach his earlobes. There were no more than twenty grey hairs in both his [blessed] head and beard. His face was radiant and shone like the full moon. He was immensely beautiful to behold. He was the epitome of dignity in silence; and when he spoke, there was an effusion of splendour and awe. From afar, he appeared graceful, elegant and the most handsome of all. So also from near; he was the most beautiful, comely and pleasant. His speech was sweet and his forehead ample. His eyebrows were [thin] long and were not joined; his nose was aquiline: thin and straight with a raised bridge; his cheeks were soft, he had a full mouth and his teeth were spotless and white. There was a narrow gap between his two front teeth. [Nūr al-Úyūn]
